

McAVOY-RUSH RECOUNT DISCLOSES FEW ERRORS

Several Ballot Boxes Opened, but Only Trivial Changes Are Recorded.

The recount of the ballots cast in the Supreme Court Democratic primary in which Judge Francis V. McAvoy and Thomas E. Rush were the contestants was begun to-day before the Board of Elections. During the morning several ballot boxes—all that were on hand—were opened, and the ballots they contained were examined.

The examination did not disclose the widespread frauds that have been alleged. A majority of the boxes showed no change, or a change of only one vote in favor of either candidate. In the Twentieth Election District of the Second Assembly District, according to Herbert Limburg, counsel for Judge McAvoy, ten fraudulent ballots were counted for Mr. Rush and seven ballots showed that the cross opposite Judge McAvoy's name had been erased and another cross had been made opposite the name of his opponent.

Mr. Rush claims that a deliberate error in addition gave McAvoy 1,000 votes to which he was not entitled in the Seventh Assembly District. This district has not been reached in the recount.

Jumps to Death From Hospital.
Gottlieb Arn, fifty-two years old of No. 460 Kerkira Avenue, Hoboken, N. J., killed himself by jumping from the third story window of the German Hospital, No. 111 East 17th Street, to the street.

FOUR CORONERS BRING SUIT.

Wagner, Senior, Voegel and Ebert Demand Names Go on Ballots.
Coroners Ernest C. Wagner and Frank Senior of Kings County and Carl Voegel and Daniel M. Ebert of Queens started a suit this morning in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn to have their offices continued, alleging that the act of the Legislature abolishing the offices was unconstitutional.

Their counsel, Edgar F. Hayleton, asked for writs of mandamus to compel the Board of Elections to put their names on the ballots to be used at the coming election. Assistant Corporation Counsel Green contended in opposition that the coroners knew the situation two years ago but waited until the last minute to take action.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Also to Beauty)
A well-known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.—Advt.
